Okay. Spoke to John. We will move forward today. I will try to find a healing strengthening tone for my closing remarks.

Good morning David – I am going to leave the decision as to postpone or not to wiser people – with a couple thoughts: in dark times it is nice to have a light to shine. To have people and events to remind us we are so much more than our sorrows and not let terrible acts overshadow true accomplishment and celebration.

Subject: Today's retirement event and questions

Rochele, Jacqueline and John:

What are your thoughts on deferring the event a week given the horrible events of yesterday? I do not want to hold an event that is inappropriate to the times. But perhaps the virtual retirement event is still appropriate? I will defer to your wisdom.

What is the agenda for the event? At some point, I assume you will give me 5 minutes to speak? I will likely use some of that time to talk about yesterday's horrible events as I did when we did our June 4th OC all hands in response to the racism events and the President having the street violently cleared of peaceful protesters for him to hold a bible upside down for a photo opportunity. Just talking about how EPA was a great place to work with dedicate colleagues as my community does not seem particularly relevant for today, although still true.

Happy to chat if that is easier. I am free today except for 10am to 11:30am to talk before the 3pm retirement.

I am sorry not to be in the office to help you navigate thru this difficult time. We can only hope that Trump is now done trying to divide and destroy the country for his own egotistical needs.
